

PHYLLIS ALLEN

Teacher Recruitment Fund

TEACH LOCAL

$5,000

Scholarship Opportunity

Supporting Teacher Diversity for the Benefit of All Students in Monroe County Schools. College tuition assistance for a Key West High School graduating senior pursuing a career as a Monroe County teacher whose heritage will contribute to teacher diversity - Preference to applicants of African-American and Afro-Caribbean heritage.

Application: One-Page Essay (300-400 typed words)

Deadline: 5pm Monday, May 16, 2022

Email to: Kevin@cffk.org

Essay should include

What inspires you to become a teacher?

Describe your ethnic and cultural heritage.

What is your connection to the Florida Keys?

How do you envision your impact serving all students?

What factors motivate you to create a future and career here?

cffk.org/diversity

COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
OF THE FLORIDA KEYS

(305) 292-1502